

Driving Instructor Training Pack:

Procedure:

After initial meeting, if all parties are satisfied training will commence at pre-arranged times.

Training Involves:

- ~ 20+ Hours of in Car Training
- ~ An Extensive Set of basic Notes
- ~ Tuition with FULL Permit ADI Instructor
- ~ Extensive Note Taking
- ~ Lesson Plans
- ~ Use of Driver Training Aids
- ~ Testing and Role-Play
- ~ Given recommended reading material
- ~ Free Re-Test Training (If Required)

The Training:

- You will be taught how to teach people how to drive in a sensible and pragmatic way. Teaching is in a proven structured way (blocks) that are essentially the same for every student. Delivery and focus on weaker aspects of individual student are the only things to change. The skill is in the modification of your own teaching ability to adapt and cope with different personality types.
- Although you will have different modules or areas that you have to make sure your students cover in order to make them proficient drivers and pass the test. You will have to focus more on certain areas for different people e.g. coasting or reversing around a corner.
- You will be taught how to bring a new learner driver all the way through to a test ready driver and how to correct your own driving idiosyncrasies.

- It seems very simple there and it is but the amount of information you need to have for your students is immense, it is only after a couple of months of constant revision of your reading material, notes and practicing your delivery will you become as confident as you need to be.
- 20 hours will fly by so it is very important to be practicing
- You will need a Full Licence (Preferably Clean) then you have to get Garda Vetted and produce an up to date Tax Clearance Certificate before you will be certified by the Road Safety Authority. But all of the details you will need are sent to you by the RSA when you apply for an ADI Pack by calling: 096 25252

Stages of your Exam:

Stage 1:

- A theory test to be taken on a computer at your local Testing Centre. The fee for this particular exam is €150

Stage 2:

- This is the Driving Test examination section of your exam; you will be on the road usually over an hour. The fee for this particular exam is €200

Stage 3:

- This is the Driving instructor Ability Test section of your exam. This section is broken into 2 sections, teaching a total beginner and an improver. This section has the highest failure rate. Again full test lasts approximately an hour. The fee for this particular exam is €200

You can apply for the 3 stages all at once or individually. If you apply for them all at once then after each stage has been completed successfully then you are instantly booked in for the next stage straight away. This is usually the most efficient way.

After all 3 Stages are completed successfully. Unfortunately, you have to send another €250 to the RSA for your Permit to be dispatched to you and to be registered on the RSA website.

Why choose Accelerated Tuition?

Well we pride ourselves on our effective training methods suitable to most people. To those who we think that are not suitable for the role as Driving Instructors you will be informed at the first meeting.

Because we are a small business with Big ideas, we will always focus on individuals, therefore we do not or will never group teach instructors or learners. Some Schools of Motoring will do this.

We are good value. We do not rip people off here and because we are small then we do not have the big overheads of the bigger schools like the ISM or Aviva.

We provide everything and more than the bigger well-known Schools of Motoring can:

- Personal Individual Tuition
- Value
- Business Advice
- Role Play
- Actual Students to practice with before we let you out by yourself to take over the world
- Pass guarantee, some trainers give it some do not. If you do not pass with us then you will not be charge for additional training
- Franchise: A fair franchise that is not financially crippling like other providers and one that is fair to both of us
- Mentoring: with any sticky questions we are just a phone call away
- Helping you choose a suitable vehicle!
- Advertising
- And much more.....

Our Franchise:
