

Information signs:

As their name suggests, these signs give information about directions and distances from your current location.

What they look like

There are three formats for information signs:

- blue signs with white letters on motorways,
- green signs with white letters, which are on national roads, and
- white signs with black letters, which are on local and regional roads.

